ABOUT 4000 DELEGATES TO
BE GLENDALE VISITORS
AT JUNE GATHERING

Tentative plans for the State Christian Endeavor convention which meets in Glendale in June, and arrangements for the entertainment of the 4,000 delegates expected, were discussed at a meeting of the general committee yesterday afternoon at the Glendale Christian church. It was the first meeting of the recently-appointed committee. Little definite action was taken.

A number of important matters were brought up for consideration by the chairman, Howard Brown, among them the question of financing the undertaking. Expense of the convention is placed at between $4,500 and $5,000. Efforts will be made to raise the entire sum in Glendale, although the County Christian Endeavor union stands ready to help should such aid be required.

Some Money Needed at Once

Funds for the purchase of stationery, circulars and other supplies will be needed at once, Mr. Brown explained. A motion made by Henry Malone, chairman of ushers, that the ways and means for raising this money be left to the executives of the district Christian Endeavor union until a finance committee be appointed was unanimously passed, the general committee agreeing to support.

MOTHER OF A. G. LINDLEY IS CALLED BY DEATH WHILE VISITING RELATIVE

The many friends of Arthur G. Lindley, well-known architect of Glendale, are sorry to learn that death has bereft him of his mother, Mrs. Sarah Phelps Lindley, who passed away on Saturday at the home of a favorite niece in Los Angeles, and whose funeral took place this afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah Phelps Lindley was born of old Puritan stock, in Williamstown, Mass., February 18, 1847, and died in Los Angeles, California, Dec. 18, 1920, being 73 years and 10 months of age. Her marriage took place in the year 1867 and she spent her whole life in the Berkshire hills until she came to California seven years ago. For the past six years the family has lived in Glendale and have been members of the First Methodist church.

Mrs. Lindley has always been a very ardent church member and has endeavored herself in a remarkable way. Her life was one of beautiful service and one made sweet by a very real Christian experience. Referring to her church, she said to her pastor who had called to see her in her last illness, "I have had a very pleasant home there. I would like to stay longer, but I cannot. I love them all."

Contemplating Her Return

Mrs. Lindley came to California in order to fill a much-needed place in the home of her son, Arthur G. Lindley. She was happy in doing that which seemed to be her's to do, and this work being finished, she was contemplating a return to her Eastern home in the spring. She was spending the intervening months visiting with her friends and loved ones here. She was in the home of a favorite niece, Mrs. Mattie Osborne, at 547 West Ninetieth street, Los Angeles, when she was overtaken by her fatal illness.

There are three other sons besides Arthur G., who mourn her loss; the eldest, Frederick C., lives on the old home place in Williamstown, Mass., and with him lives the youngest, Grover C. The other son, C. Frank Lindley, lives in Hollywood.

The funeral services were held in the Jewel City Undertaking parlors, Glendale, Monday afternoon, December 20, Dr. Clyde Monroe Crist, the pastor, in charge. A dear, good mother has gone from earth, but heaven is more real and precious to those who loved her. A blessed memory remains as an inspiration to holy living.

The body will be sent back to Mrs. Lindley's birthplace, Williamstown, Massachusetts, for interment.

FLOAT DESIGNS ARE DISCUSSED

PROPOSED DISPLAYS TO BE ENTERED IN TOURNAMENT
ARE CONSIDERED

DECISION NOT MADE

COMMITTEE TO MEET AGAIN
TONIGHT AND FIX UPON
SUITABLE DESIGN

Designs and suggestions for a float to represent the city of Glendale in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena on New Year's day were considered at a meeting of the general committee at the city hall Saturday night, with R. F. Kitterman presiding and Miss Eva Daniels acting as secretary.

The committee, for nearly two hours, went over designs and photographs and listened to suggestions from individual members with the result that no decision was reached and the meeting adjourned until tonight at 7 o'clock when, it is expected, a choice will be made.

It developed during the discussion Saturday night that it is the plan of the committee to have a float that will typify Glendale's remarkable increase in population. But how to do this without placing the float in the class of "advertising" is what is puzzling the organization. To be seriously considered for a prize, the float must have no advertising matter connected with it.

Inquiry to Be Made

In order to learn just how far the committee may go in displaying Glendale's growth by the float and yet not be classed as advertising, Dr. Jessie A. Russell was appointed to make inquiry of the Tournament of Roses officials.

T. W. Watson, city manager, was present and gave the committee some information concerning last year's float, including costs of various materials.

Members of the committee who had investigated the cost of flowers reported that the prices had gone up from thirty to fifty per cent over last year. Mrs. Mabel Tight, of the committee, had made a complete inquiry into the floral situation.

Further suggestions as to a design for the float will be made at the meeting of the committee tonight and, according to the understanding reached at Saturday night's meeting, a final decision will be made tonight and, probably, a committee named to carry out the details.

INVADE SOTHLAND AFTER HOLIDAYS, IS STATED

Many Wisconsin families are planning to come to southern California after the holidays. That is the declaration of L. C. Matthews of Rhineland, Wis., who arrived here with his family recently and almost immediately purchased a home in Verdugo Woodlands.

Mr. Matthews announces that seven other families were in the party and all came here by automobile, making the trip from Wisconsin in thirty-eight days. He says that a large number of Wisconsin residents will invade southern California after the holidays and that, he predicts, all previous records will be broken.

THIRTY-FIVE HAVE ALREADY SIGNED UP AS MEMBERS OF INFANTRY COMPANY

Thirty-five of the flower of Glendale's young manhood have already enlisted in the Infantry company of the National Guards of California, thus assuring a company in Glendale, Captain Thomas D. Watson announced at noon today. Enlistment opened at noon Saturday and Glendale's record is looked upon as a remarkable one.

W. L. Alexander and Kenneth R. Jackson, two prominent high school boys, were the first to enlist. Twenty-three other high school boys were quick to follow their example. A minimum enlistment of sixty-five is required and a maximum of 120 has been set. However, organization may be started with only twenty-five members.

The young men who have already joined will be given a physical examination Wednesday of next week. Dr. Gerhard Kaemmerling, a Glendale physician, will conduct examinations.

Athletes Among Signers

Captain Watson said today he was positive all men now enlisted would pass the test. Most of the letter men of the high school are among the group and practically all of the high school football team, all of whom have already passed physical tests.

Officers have not been chosen, but a meeting has been called for this purpose Thursday of next week. N. C. Hayhurst, high school athletic director who has taken charge of high school enlistment from the first, will be one of the officers.

Drill will start the latter part of next week in the high school gymnasium which has been generously turned over by the school authorities for use by the guards until an armory may be built.

The ladies of the First M. E. church have consented to serve the supper, which is assurance that the culinary phase of the gathering will be as satisfactory, in its way, as the intellectual phase.

AN OPEN LETTER

Glendale Evening News:—During the past ten days or so this firm has given The Evening News a thorough test as an advertising medium. I want to assure you that the results have been highly satisfactory—in fact, surprisingly so. By next Thursday we will have spent a substantial sum advertising our inventory sale in The Evening News, and this fact alone demonstrates that we have found the paper a highly profitable publicity medium. We have known all along that it was a good advertising medium, but we had never before tested its efficacy in this respect to the extent that we have lately.

PARTY IS UNIQUE

MRS. NELLIE G. SQUIRE HAS ENJOYABLE AFTERNOON ON BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY

When one has reached the milestone that marks three score and ten and has still a keen zest for life and a lively appreciation of its joys and pleasures, one needs must have not merely an ordinary birthday celebration, but a birthday party extraordinary.

So thought the friends of Mrs. Nellie G. Squire, mother of Mrs. William McMillan, of Milford street, whose seventieth birthday was celebrated on Friday, the 17th, in a most enjoyable and unique fashion.

A progressive luncheon was the celebration arranged for the happy "birthday child" by fourteen of her old friends. The first course was served at the home of Mrs. Benjamin Holbrook of West Harvard street. The house was beautifully decorated in holly and Christmas greens, and table decorations were in the same festive colors.

The guests then repaired to the home of Mrs. Earl Schuyler on Ivy street, where the second course was served. The long table, where the guests enjoyed an appetizing menu, was centered with a huge snowball surrounded with Christmas holly, and red tapers gave an added touch of beauty.

The dainty salad course was served by Mrs. C. W. Dudley at her home at Central avenue and Broadway. Red candles in glass candlesticks marked the place of each guest, and threw an enchanting glow over the handsomely appointed table.

The final course was served at the home of Mrs. McMillan, and consisted of a large, beautiful birthday cake with sherbet and coffee.

Mrs. Squire was presented with a lovely basket piled high with many tokens of the love of those present as well as remembrances from other friends in her Michigan home and elsewhere.

Guests from Pasadena, Long Beach, Los Angeles and Glendale composed the party who enjoyed the pleasure of the afternoon and wished Mrs. Squires many more happy birthdays.

EXERCISES AND TREE ARE HELD

CENTRAL CHRISTIAN CHURCH
BIBLE SCHOOL PRESENTS
CHRISTMAS PROGRAM

GIVING TO OTHERS

FOOD AND CLOTHING TO BE DISTRIBUTED TO VARIOUS CHARITABLE HOMES

The Christmas exercises of the Central Christian Bible school were held last evening and nearly every seat in the church auditorium was occupied. The large rostrum back of the pulpit was beautifully arranged to represent the sky canopied with stars and in one corner was a Christmas tree resplendent with ornaments and vari-colored lights.

Willard Learned, superintendent, announced the opening song, "Joy to the World," and after this was sung W. B. Kirk offered prayer. Then Rev. Cole, the pastor, explained that the Bible school, which is the teaching department of the church, had formed the habit of giving to others on Christmas instead of receiving.

The program, he said, would illustrate why this was done. The opening number was a song by the beginners and then the Junior department gave a beautiful exercise, leading off with the story of the visit of the wise men to the new-born Christ child, from Matthew 2:1-12, recited in concert. Then a little girl placed a large lighted candle at the apex of a round structure of four tiers in height, signifying the Christ who is the light of the world. Then twelve other juniors lighted smaller candles from the big one and placed them around the next tier. The nineteen centuries since Christ's coming were then represented by candles placed around the next tier; on the lower tier thirty-six lighted candles, representing officers and teachers of the Bible school.

Meeting of Three Wise Men
Following this beautiful portrayal which was accentuated at intervals by descriptive songs, the meeting of the three wise men, Balthasar the Egyptian, Gaspar the Greek and Melchior the Hindu, represented by Robert Stone, Earl Jodon and Leslie Bennett, was represented; the conference in the desert and the subsequent visit to the inn at Bethlehem, where their gifts were laid before the Christ child's manger, over which leaped the beautiful mother, represented by Miss Garnet Peters. As these vivid scenes were portrayed Miss Bertha Jackson read the description from Lew Wallace's Ben Hur. A brilliant star overhung the manger during the recital.

Following this came the "white gifts for the King," the pupils and teachers, by classes, marching around and depositing their gifts of food and clothing, which are to be sent to various charitable institutions, around the manger. Then the offering for the care of aged ministers and their dependents, was taken up. This amounted to $30.

YOUNG CHAUFFEUR IS BEING HELD BY POLICE; TELLS OF GLENDALE BURGLARIES

Authorities of Glendale are investigating the story told to the Los Angeles police by Dan D. Farrell, a young chauffeur, under arrest on a charge of burglary.

According to the story he told the police, Farrell is guilty of four burglaries in Glendale and Hollywood. His arrest was accomplished, it is said, on a tip furnished by a woman whose name is being withheld by the police.

When Farrell was taken into custody at Third street and Grand avenue in Los Angeles, with him were H. V. Jolson, a waiter, and W. Weiss, a roofer, both of whom were held on suspicion.

QUICK RECOVERY

PROPERTY TAKEN FROM HOME
OF DR. HENRY HARROWER
IS FOUND BY POLICE

Yesterday morning Mrs. Henry R. Harrower received a telephone call from the Central police station in Los Angeles asking if the doctor had not recently been robbed, and inviting Dr. and Mrs. Harrower to come down to the office on First street, Los Angeles, to identify their property.

So quite a joyful party presented themselves to Detective Stelzriek shortly before 2 o'clock. Several suitcases were brought in, and sticking from one of them was the doctor's dressing gown, and from another his house coat.

On opening them many of the articles stolen from the Harrower residence on North Cedar street last Thursday night were found jumbled together with loot from elsewhere.

Helps to Identification
It seems that the burglars had also stolen the doctor's prismatic binoculars which had served in the United States navy during the war, and consequently had been engraved with his name and the navy number. This quickly connected the officers with the rightful owner.

The burglars are safely lodged in the Los Angeles city jail, and were caught by Detectives Simpson and Stelzriek while leaving

The Glendale Realty company, believing, it stated, that this city would receive a great deal of favorable advertising by means of a float in the Tournament of Roses parade in Pasadena on New Year's day, sent a check for $10 to The Evening News office to be applied to the float fund. The Glendale Realty company is composed of C. D. Thom, W. M. Winger and H. E. Rommel.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Russell, the former of the Russell Furniture company of Glendale, have returned here after a most enjoyable visit in the East. They spent about five months away, most of the time in Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Russell reside at 101 North Cedar street. Accompanying them to Glendale was Mrs. Sadie Houseman, of Detroit, Mich. She is their guest and, perhaps, may be won by the attractions of southern California and decide to make her home here.

After spending about five months visiting relatives in the east and in touring the country, Mrs. N. C. Gibbs, well-known resident of Glendale, has returned here and is now at the home of her son, B. Van Tassel, 110 North Cedar street.

Mrs. Gibbs first went to Iowa, where she spent some time. Then she visited New York City, after which she visited in Washington. While she was pleased to see her relatives and old friends in the east, she is glad, she says, to return to southern California—and Glendale.

A Christmas play was given by the B. Y. P. U. in the social hall of the Baptist church last evening, entitled "In Honor of Jane." Those who took part in the play were: Marion Grigg, as the grandmother; Katherine Taylor, as Jane; Messrs. Wheeler, Grigg, Dale Wood, as the sons; Faith Tarrington and Hazel Walters, as the daughters; Billy and Sally Gray, Irene Curli, Howard Kent and Ethelwyn Kent, as the grandchildren; and Margaret McPherson, as a neighbor. Songs and recitations were a part of the program. A large number of the church members enjoyed the evening with the young people.

Life Insurance Is a Man's Plain Duty

The plain duty of every man is to insure his life for the benefit of his family.

If the cost of living keeps his bank account from growing, then the need of insurance is doubly urgent. How often life insurance for a moderate amount would have saved loved ones from the hardship and humiliation of going out into the world to earn their daily bread, when inexperienced and unable to do so.

I will be pleased to help you select the kind of policy best suited to your needs.

The speaker was H. C. Rettberg, 1239 East Harvard street. He called up this office this morning to order "killed" a classified advertisement he had had running in the paper and to give "copy" for an advertisement on something else he wishes to trade.

SAN FERNANDO ORGANIZES TO CARRY ON WORK TO AID COMMUNITY GROWTH

The sum of $10,000 pledged annually for three years was subscribed by 700 citizens of San Fernando as the result of a campaign launched by the Chamber of Commerce and Allied Community organizations of that city which has just been brought to a close. The fund is to carry out a program outlined by a citizens' committee prior to the campaign.

The Allied Community organizations include the Ad club, the Farm Center, Elective Study club, Woman's Civic league, Ebell club and the Parent-Teacher associations. The plan is that each of the organizations will work on the phase of the program that it is best fitted to carry out.

James O. Stevenson of Los Angeles was the director of the drive and will advise the organization in their work. Fred W. Prince is president of the Chamber of Commerce and H. A. Decker secretary.

CHRISTMAS COIN

PACIFIC ELECTRIC MEN OF GLENDALÉ ARE EXPECTING BONUS CHECKS NOW

Pacific Electric employees living in Glendale will this week receive their Christmas checks which amount in some cases to as much as $60, under the railway's bonus system. It is estimated that the Pacific Electric railway company will expend this year approximately $50,000 in this manner.

Efficient service is rewarded by an additional $5 added to the trainman's monthly check for each month that he is in the service. Demerits, however, mean a cut in the employee's bonus, $1 being deducted for each demerit placed on the trainman's record. Money thus deducted from the employee's bonus check is given to the hospital fund for trainmen's beneficiary service.

Mrs. Maude Case of St. Louis is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. S. S. Gillyuly of 342 El Bonita avenue. She will remain for over the holidays.

H. E. Bartlett, official weather observer for Glendale, reports .69 of an inch for yesterday's storm, making a total of 2.81 to date, with 6.69 for the same period last season.

Dr. C. M. Crist, pastor of the First Methodist church is attending a meeting of the Southern California Methodist ministers' association in Los Angeles today.

Teachers of Glendale are attending the institute in Los Angeles this week. It will close on Friday evening, giving the teachers a nine days' vacation to the beginning of school again on January 3.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Leaton, of 504 Raleigh street, will have as their house guests for the Christmas holidays, Mr. Leaton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Leaton, of Los Angeles.

A pipe organ for the new Glendale Theatre weighing 21,935 pounds was hauled from the Salt Lake station to the theatre building this morning by the Robinson Transfer company. It will be set up in a few days.

Richardson D. White, superintendent of Glendale schools, has remodeled and enlarged his week-end home at La Crescenta and he and his family have taken up their permanent residence there.

The Wednesday evening prayer meeting at the First M. E. church will partake of the Christmas spirit. Its subject will be "Christ Born Anew in Our Lives." The cantata will be given Thursday evening instead of Wednesday, as previously announced in The Evening News.

Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Crist will be hosts at a noon dinner on Christmas day to Los Angeles friends, with whom they have celebrated Christmas for the past fourteen or fifteen years. C. J. Drury, Mrs. Crist's father, will also be a member of the guest group. In the evening the Crist family will be the guests of Mr. Crist's relatives in Los Angeles.

TAKE ON CHANGE

BETTER GO PREPARED WHEN BOARDING CAR; NEW RULE BY PACIFIC ELECTRIC

If you sometimes board a Pacific Electric car for Los Angeles, having no small change, only a bill of comparatively large denomination, thinking that the conductor will have the change for it, don't do it any more—unless you want to run the risk of having the entire bill kept by the conductor and a receipt for it given to you.

O. A. Smith, passenger traffic manager of the Pacific Electric, has sent notices to Glendale—as well as other territory covered by the railway—to the effect that conductors unable to cash bill of large denominations after some effort has been made to do so, will give the passenger a receipt for the bill and change will be refunded to the rider at the head office of the company in Los Angeles. The amount of the fare, it is explained, will be deducted at the passenger office when the receipt is presented and the remainder of the money given back to the passenger.

Surprised on Birthday

The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations by means of holly sprays, and the adornments of the large birthday cake were likewise done in the Christmas colors.

Dancing was the chief diversion of the evening, the phonograph supplying most of the music, except when Clarence Whaley graciously acceded to the requests of his young friends to favor them with his excellent piano music for several dance numbers.

Guests who came to do honor to Roy's birthday anniversary were Mr. and Mrs. Will Kingsley, Misses Dorothy Rowley, Alice Holmes, Marcella Miller, Catherine Marlean, Florence Marlean, Helen Vremburg, Gertrude Hawkins, Lillie Schick, and Messrs. Frank McGillis, Jabe Rowley, Roland Rowley, Gordon Clayton, Harold Phillips, Kenneth Whaley and Donald Carolin.

Refreshments were also, Christmas-y in character; they consisted of plum pudding and coffee. The hostess, Miss Crawford, was assisted by her mother, Mrs. W. M. Crawford.

Successful experiments on a large scale convince the department of agriculture that a practical method has been found of saving peach orchards from the peach tree borer. Crystals of an insecticide are sprinkled around the base of the infected tree and covered with earth. The substance forms gas which kills the borers. Millions of dollars have already been saved to Georgia orchard men through this discovery.

No representative of the United States will attend the sessions of the assembly of the League of Nations, it is announced authoritatively.

STATE CONVENTION TO BE

port any method which the executive committee should propose.

Fully half of the time yesterday was given over to the selecting of eligible workers who might be called upon to take charge of certain duties in preparation for the meet. The names of a number of prominent professional and business men of Glendale were suggested to serve on the finance, recreation and commissary committees, but no definite appointments were made.

In order to start actual work as soon as possible it was agreed that persons selected by the executive committee be invited to attend the next regular meeting of that body Sunday, January 2, after their appointment has been approved by the members of the general committee.

Called Greatest Undertaking
"Our aim must be to get the best Christian people of Glendale behind this thing," Mr. Brown declared in opening the meeting. "It is the biggest undertaking which Glendale has ever entered into and already many of our business men have expressed their interest and willingness to help. There will be work enough for them all. Our work is to select the right man for the right place."

J. A. Newton was temporarily placed in charge of local publicity. Outside publicity will be turned over to the State Christian Endeavor union. The matter of selecting musical talent necessary for the successful conducting of the convention will probably not be seriously considered until after the county union meeting in March.

Suggestion was made yesterday that Pasadena or Burbank be asked to furnish the chorus, as much of Glendale's talent will be needed for other work. The securing of a real Christian Endeavor chorus of not less than 300 voices is the aim of the committee at present.

High School Is Offered
Another important matter to be arranged for is the securing of halls in which meetings may be held, as it is probable as many as twenty-five or thirty conferences will be in progress at one time. The school board has already offered the high school auditorium for such purposes and every church auditorium in the city will have to be utilized.

Preparations for the feeding of the delegates including regular meals, special luncheons for committee and divisional groups and banquets, must also be made since Glendale's restaurants and cafes can scarcely meet present demands. An appeal will be made to proprietors of such eating places to increase their capacity during the convention period. The customary plan of furnishing lodging and breakfasts gratis to delegates coming from long distances will be carried out.

Some of Recreational Plans
Present recreational plans include three picnics for the Senior, Intermediate and Junior divisions, tours of inspection and musical programs. A corps of pages and guides to take charge of the delegates as they leave the station and to conduct them safely to their hotels and lodging places will be selected from among the junior members.

Fred Hoffman, whose splendid work in the organization of young people has won him state-wide recognition, has been requested to take charge of this group.

In speaking of the financial question, Mr. Brown explained that the convention this year will be conducted on an entirely new basis and will be self-supporting, due to an increased registration fee. The plan has been tried out in eastern cities and Glendale feels itself fortunate to be the first California city in which the experiment will be tried.

The plan of the County Christian Endeavor union for financially aiding Glendale in conducting the convention was explained yesterday by Will Richards, second vice-chairman of the general committee.

Most of the funds will be raised by pre-registration, the State union having given the County union permission to charge a fee of $1 to senior and intermediate delegates. A certain quota of delegates will be apportioned to each district in the state and a banner will be offered the district registering the highest per cent of its members.

An effort to secure 2,000 pre-registrations before May will be made, the drive to start next Saturday at the County union meeting at Whittier. Those registering before the opening of the convention will be given a receipt which, when presented to the Glendale committee, will entitle them to a badge and program.

The general committee decided to meet every other Sunday from now on at the Christian church. The executive committee will meet every alternating Sunday.

FIRST TIME IN 59 YEARS.
Miss Fannie M. Read of Hancock, N. Y., left her home for the first time in fifty-nine years to attend the funeral of her brother, E. Darwin Read, 82, after being a voluntary recluse ever since the beginning of the civil war. Although an aged woman, Miss Read is still vigorous and in good health. She is said to have made a vow in 1861 that she would never leave her room after her father broke off her engagement to a national guard officer. She kept the vow.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

MR. AND MRS. THOMAS MEAGHER ARE HOSTS IN BEHALF OF DAUGHTER, GERALDINE

The pretty bungalow home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meagher of 343 Garfield avenue was the scene of much Christmas merriment Saturday evening, it being the celebration of the 14th birthday of their daughter Geraldine. Thirty of Geraldine's friends gathered to help make this a happy birthday and one long to be remembered.

The home was beautifully decorated with the Christmas colors. A large tree adorned with bright trimmings added to the cheer. The rooms were aglow with red and green streamers, Christmas bells, holly and mistletoe. Refreshments were served in a room where the woodland bowers seemed to predominate. It was covered with pepper branches, making one feel that they were out in the woods, and the figure "14" in large lettering told the age of the honored guest. A delicious birthday cake adorned the table, ornamented with Christmas colors. When the fourteen red candles were lighted each guest gave a loving birthday wish to Geraldine. Games and music were enjoyed by all. The young lady was the recipient of many beautiful gifts from her friends; among them she prizes highly a lovely mahogany Manualo player presented to her by her parents.

NOTED FOR HOME CLUBHOUSE

The former New York home of Stanford White, noted during the architect's life as a treasure house of rare paintings and other "objects d'art," is now the clubhouse for the daughters of the country from which those treasures came. It was recently opened by the International Institute of the New York City Y. W. C. A. as a social and educational center of foreign-born women and girls. Girls of so many nationalities meet there for English classes, dramatics, gym work, domestic arts and good times in general that neighbors in the vicinity have named it "Our Own Little League of Nations." It is one of the sixty-two centers for foreign-born girls maintained in various parts of the United States by the Y. W. C. A. and directed by American women and "nationality workers" who speak the European languages.

The first steps have been taken in the formation of a national organization of canning crop vegetable growers. The federation of farm bureaus is fostering the movement.

CALL FOR COIN

SOME OF SUBSCRIBERS HAVE NOT YET PAID PLEDGES TO FLOAT FUND

About $200 yet remains to be paid by subscribers to the fund secured to place a float representing the city of Glendale in the Tournament of Roses parade at Pasadena on New Year's day. The finance committee has asked that those who have pledged, pay their money at once to R. F. Kitterman, chairman of the general committee, at the First National bank.

The Evening News, which received the subscriptions to the fund, on Saturday made a report to Chairman Kitterman and turned over to him all money collected, a list of those who had paid and a list of those who had subscribed but who had not then made payment.

The report showed a total of $443.50 collected and a little over $200 remaining due. The total, with the $229 expected from the tractor show fund, will bring the amount to practically $900. The general committee intends to ask the city trustees for at least $100 from the city's promotion and publicity fund and, presuming the sum is given, the grand total of the float fund will be a little over $1000, or the amount the committee considers necessary to finance a creditable display for Glendale.

A congress to be organized at San Sebastian will consider the furthering of ideal business relations of Spain and France. The subjects considered will be commerce and industry, art, literature and science and international touring arrangements.

Some one has taken the trouble to compute that it would take as many states the size of Massachusetts to make a United States as it takes days to make a leap year.

GROWTH IS RAPID

HENRY-BROWN COMPANY ONE OF THE BIG INDUSTRIES OF CITY; OFFICES ENLARGED

The great growth of the Henry-Brown company, manufacturers of Sierra Club beverages, whose factory is located at Wilson avenue and Isabel street, has necessitated an immediate enlargement of the plant.

The business is found to have outgrown the capacity of the offices, and for this reason they have been moved to the southwest end of the building, where they occupy a space four times as large as the old offices.

An addition to the present research laboratory, which had also outgrown the space allotted it, will be installed in the place vacated by the business offices.

Other important changes are taking place in the manufacturing department. Extensive cement and concrete work necessitated the closing of the plant for two weeks beginning with last Saturday. In consequence of this, all employees of the plant are enjoying a two-weeks' vacation, on full pay.

Flavor, Sparkle and Nourishment

The increasing growth in the popularity of Sierra Club beverages is due to their fine flavor and sparkle and their nourishing and refreshing qualities. The plant is open to the public at all times, but it is the plan of the management to hold a public reception as soon as the changes in their building are completed, when the public will be invited to inspect the plant and to witness the interesting process of the making and bottling of these wholesome beverages.

FOR CHRISTMAS

DAY IS COMMEMORATED WITH SERVICES AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH SUNDAY

Christmas was commemorated yesterday in the Sabbath services at the Presbyterian church. In the evening a rich and varied program of music was given, the quartette, choir and the organ being assisted by Mrs. Albert McCreery Draper, Miss Elsie Cox and Mrs. Zetta Gibbons, and also by the Sunday school orchestra. The sermon, on "Adam's Christmas," portrayed the beginning of Christmas in the very first promise, given to Adam, of the future redemption in Christ.

The morning's sermon by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Edmonds, was upon the subject, "The Christ of Christmas." A brief resume follows: Again the light and glow and beauty of the Christmas season are here. There is something wonderful about it. He is called "Wonderful" whose birth we celebrate. The Christmas season is a fountain of perennial freshness. No other story is so eagerly told as the Christmas story, none is sweeter to childhood or to age.

That verse which is accepted as best in the Bible is also the best Christmas text:—"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." (John 3:16).

If this has not usually been rated the chief star in the Christmas firmament, it is only because most Christians fail to keep alive the fundamental meaning of Christmas,—its gospel meaning. With this in mind let us seek the deeper, spiritual lessons to be drawn from the story of the Saviour's birth.

Interesting by Contrast

The Christ of legend is interesting only by contrast. The observance of Christmas did not begin until about the fourth century, and in that time legends and traditions grew up, fanciful or pleasing or wondrous, but untrue.

But notice the theology of Christmas, without which the story is not complete. One system, old and hoary, considers Christ only as a very lofty man, divine only as we speak of a divine singer or poet. But scripture declares Him equal with God, and with God before His birth into humanity; a distinct personality, with two natures in one person, as divine as the Father, as human as we.

The Christ of Christmas sets before us a great object lesson of humility, self-sacrifice and love. After you visit Bethlehem and look into that manger all human pride must lay its head in the dust, and all human ideas of honor and pre-eminence will be reversed. May it be ours to walk more closely after Him in humility. And consider the simplicity of that coming. God might have sent His Son with at least the common comforts; but the King of Glory came into a village stable and a manger bed. God, teach us the true lesson of simplicity.

What have you given back to God in return for His gift? Perhaps you have given trifles; here is One who gave an infinite gift, His life.

The supreme lesson of Christmas is the indwelling Christ. He that was born into our nature must be born into each one in a personal incarnation. Is He living in me?

Looking for Another Star

I would like to have been in Bethlehem when He was born. That was the scene of His humiliation. He is in the glory now. Through faith "we are now the sons of God, but it doth not yet appear what we shall be, but we know that when He shall appear, we shall be like Him." The Christ of Christmas always points forward to the Christ of the Advent. We are looking for another star, the star of His coming again. How different these two comings! He came as a Prince in disguise, laying down His life; but when He comes again, unveiled in all His glory, it will be as King of kings and Lord of lords. Then, your cross will be exchanged for a crown. The best is yet to come: the climax of Christmas is when He comes again.

"Christ is coming back again. Just the same but not as then; He is coming to a throne, Heaven and earth His sway shall own; Shall we share His second reign When He comes to earth again?"

More than 2,000,000 barberry bushes were dug up in America last year in the fight against black stem wheat rust.
